Dear

I have determined that it would be to the best interest of all concerned to review in detail your activities as an employee of the Central Intelligence Agency.

I, therefore, am directing you to make available immediately to Mr. Frank G. Wisner, the Deputy Director for Plans or his designees, all records, documents and properties pertaining to any of your activities which do or conceivably might, bear on any official business of the Central Intelligence Agency. In this connection you are directed to make available any material which includes but is not limited to the following:

(a) All records pertaining to financial transactions in which Federal funds have been used including records of moneys and bank accounts.

(b) All files, documents, memoranda, notes, and other records which concern directly or indirectly any Agency business including projects, operations, and any transactions with respect to real estate.

(c) All Agency property for which you are accountable.

You are hereby directed to make yourself available during regular CIA business hours to Mr. Wisner or his designees and such other Agency representatives as may be deemed necessary by Mr. Wisner or his designees, at a designated CIA office for the purpose of being interviewed and interrogated with respect to the foregoing.

Your failure to cooperate in any respect will result in your being subject to immediate suspension from duty from this Agency and/or other disciplinary action.

Your are hereby directed as of this date to desist from any activity whatsoever concerning this Agency except in complying with the above directions.

Very truly yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
